Pro-Chancellor,

Ten years after graduating from BU, Kwilole Chisuse-van der Boom samade a globa impact as the chair of a charty providing a home and education to orphaned children in Zambia.

Kwilole took over leadership of the Funsani charity immediately after completing her degree. She has since overseen is work to raise 18 children orphaned by HIV and to support further 500 children at a local school. : L W KHRVKO U L W KWRVK R LUUW QRZ IRUJLQJ WKHLU RZC engineers, nurses and teachers, the Funsani Homhas recertly welcomed nine new children into its care.

The transformational power of education was impressed upon Kwild from an early age. Having been adopted by her aunt and uncle, who are both doctors, the family moved from Zambia to Oxfordshire when Kwilole was aged 12. She recalls attending the local comprehensive and being the only black person in a schob